Attendance Last Sunday.....16

Remember Our Sick and Shut-In Members in your daily prayers; Lillian Hellebusch, Maxine Bossaller, Alfred Boss, Emily Niebruegge, and any others that may be experiencing health problems.

Holy Communion will be celebrated this morning. Please make your intentions known to an Elder before the service. Visitors desiring to commune at our altar for the first time are requested to consult with the Pastor.

Altar Flowers today are given by the Maddox children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren, in remembrance of their parent's birthdays . . . John (January 9) and Ruby (February 25).

Choir rehearsal on Wednesday, February 6 at 7:00 p.m.

A speaker for the Gideons will be with us next Sunday to tell us a little about their work to provide God's Word to the world. A door collection will be taken following the service.

Installation of church officers will be held next Sunday.

We are used to asking Pastor to bless our food.... But there are other things that can also be blessed. Have you ever thought of blessing your entire house? It is appropriate for homes of Christians to be blessed by the Word of God and prayer (1 Timothy 4:5). This may happen when you move into a new home, when you renovate your old one, or when something significant that happens there (such as a fire, etc.). Homes may even be blessed annually, and traditionally this is done during the season of Epiphany because of the connection to the Magi's visit of the home of the baby Jesus (Matthew 2:11). If you may be interested in such a thing, please speak to Pastor or an elder.

If you would like to volunteer to serve as church custodian for a month (or two) during 2019, please add your name to the time of your choice on the form on the bulletin board.

Alaska Mission Team's Trivia Night on February 3 at the Beaufort Lions Club. See the poster on the bulletin board for details.

Bulletin items and information for the 2018 Year End report may be given to Ed Bossaller or e-mailed to ebossaller@centurytel.net
