Remember Our Sick and Shut-Ins in your daily prayers; Lois Gerschefske, Michael Gerschefske, James Lacy, Charles Horan, David Lindhardt, Donna Wood, MO District President Rev. Dr. R. Lee Hagan, and any others that may be experiencing health problems.

As weather permits, we will continue with work nights on Wednesday evenings.

A vacant dual-parish northwest of Columbia has extended a Call to Pastor to serve full-time. He has recently acknowledged that Call and has promised to give them an answer by the end of May. Please pray for him as he deliberates this Call.

Confirmation instruction can certainly continue (or it can start) during the summer months. Just work out with the pastor what time and place would work with those interested in being confirmed and receiving the Lord's Supper. The plan also is to start meeting when school starts in August, again at a time and place that would work for all involved. It will certainly help to read (and re-read) Luther's Small Catechism, and this is also the small booklet, A Simple Explanation of Christianity. Please talk to Pastor or an elder if you have any questions.

Family Fun at Camp Trinity: Bring the family out May 30th for the 21st Annual Family Fun Day beginning at 8 a.m. with a 5K and 1 Mile Fun Run over the trails at Camp Trinity; runners and walkers are both welcome. The Fishing Derby begins at 9:30 and concludes at 11:30. The swimming pool will be open along with a Bounce House for the children. The event concludes with an awards ceremony and devotion at 11:30 a.m. Registration link at <http://www.camptrinity.org/EventsPage>.
